

OSW

CENTRE FOR EASTERN STUDIES
OŚRODEK STUDIÓW WSCHODNICH im. Marka Karpia

Funded by:

Forecasting migration between the EU, V4 and Eastern Europe: impact of visa abolition

Centre for Eastern Studies (Warsaw) in cooperation with: Geographic Migration Centre, Charles University, Prague, Research Centre of the Slovak Foreign Policy Association;; Hungarian Institute of International Affairs; Institute for Economic Research and Policy Consulting, Kyiv; Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies; Institute for Development and Social Initiatives (IDIS) „Viitorul”, Chisinau; Centre of Migration Research Foundation, Warsaw.

Project's closing seminar

June 23, 9.00-14.00, Prague

Venue: Hotel Belveder Praga, Milady Horákové 19

9.00-9.15 Registration and coffee

09.15-9.30 Welcome and opening remarks

Dusan Drbohlav, Head of Geographic Migration Centre (Czechia)

Marta Jaroszewicz, Migration Project Coordinator, Centre for Eastern Studies OSW, (Poland)

9.30-10.30 First session. EU, V4 and Eastern Europe. Migration forecasts and projections.

9.30-10.00 Project's results presentation, Marta Jaroszewicz, Migration Project Coordinator, Centre for Eastern Studies - OSW (Poland)

10.00-10.30 Delphi research on migration patterns between V4-EU and Eastern Europe, Dusan Drbohlav, Head of Geographic Migration Centre (Czechia)

Moderator: Andrei Yeliseyev, research fellow, Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies

10.30-10.45 - Discussion

10.45-11.00 - Coffee break

11.00-12.45 Second session: Country perspective on migration patterns between EU/V4 and Eastern Europe

Sending states:

Ukraine's perspective, Oksana Kuziakiv, Deputy Director, Institute for Economic Research and Policy Consulting, (Ukraine)

Belarus' perspective, Andrei Yeliseyev, research fellow, Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies, (Belarus)

Moldova's perspective, Kamil Calus, research fellow, Centre for Eastern Studies OSW, Warsaw

Receiving states:

Czechia's perspective - Dita Cermakova, research fellow, Geographic Migration Centre, (Czechia)

Poland's perspective, Marta Jaroszewicz, Migration Project Coordinator, Centre for Eastern Studies OSW, (Poland)

Moderator: Dusan Drbohlav, Head of Geographic Migration Centre (Czechia)

12.45-13.15 - Discussion and closing remarks